Communications & Community Action (AFRAS 360)

Alternative Spring Break Ghana

Students perform short-term projects while learning about such issues as culture, resistance to enslavement, poverty, gender issues, educational and cultural literacy, and colonialism. These experiences are designed to heighten social awareness and promote life-long social action.

Pram Pram Methodist Basic School

New Horizon Special School

Osu Orphanage

University of Ghana School of Performing Arts

Diamonds in the Rough, Crawford High School

Service

Crawford High School

AFRAS 360 offers an after school class for “the diamonds in the rough” on Africana Culture and History. Students provide lectures, films, activities, etc. that challenge the high school students’ critical thinking skills.

Learning

School of Business & Law at Crawford High School

Kwame Nkrumah Memorial Park

W.E.B. Dubois Centre for Pan-Africanism

El Mina Slave Dungeon

Field Trip to Allensworth, CA

Christening Ceremony of USNS Medgar Evers

San Diego State University

Class meets on alternating weeks to discuss curriculum, progress of the projects and propose strategies to be implemented in the next week’s volunteer efforts. The project culminates in a presentation.

Dr. Adisa A. Alkebulan
Dr. Shirley Weber

Dr. Adisa A. Alkebulan

Dr. Shirley Weber

The local community portion is an education project at Crawford High School. Africana Studies majors and minors offer a cultural/history program for the Diamonds in the Rough Program. The program works with students who have behavioral issues that impact their performance in school.